

DAVID T. MCFADDIN, Ed.D.
PRESIDENT

---

EASTERN KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY

Dr. David T. McFaddin was appointed Eastern Kentucky University's 14th President in August of 2020. Prior to his appointment, he served as Interim President, Senior Vice President of Operations and Strategic Initiatives, Vice President for Government Relations, Engagement and Regional Stewardship, and a part-time faculty member in the Department of Communication and the Department of Educational Leadership and Policy Studies. Since 2013, David has served as an active member of the President's Council and has overseen many areas of the University, including communications, legislative advocacy, regional outreach, workforce development, Model Laboratory School, WEKU, Athletics, and Student Government. His broad set of experiences and demonstrated leadership success at EKU and unique business acumen pair well with his love for his alma mater, its students, employees, and everyone who has a love for Eastern. Before joining the University, Dr. McFaddin held regional and statewide leadership posts with AT&T, a Fortune 10 company and the largest telecommunications provider in the U.S., for nearly 15 years.
